MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Command Policy on Subsisting in Installation's Appropriated Fund Dining Facilities

1. Applicability: This Command Policy on Subsisting in Installation's Appropriated Fund Dining Facilities applies to all DOD personnel at the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center and Presidio of Monterey (DLIFLC & POM). Reference AR 30-1, 21 June 1999, The Army Food Service Program.
2. This memorandum establishes command policy and procedures for military and DOD civilian personnel to subsist in the installation's appropriated fund dining facilities, and the conditions under which officer and DOD civilian personnel are authorized to subsist on cash meal rates in these facilities.
3. Belas Hall is hereby designated as a transient dining facility. Combs Hall is designated a student dining facility. The "Kiosk" is a Fast Food Facility, serving a la carte food items.
4. All military personnel assigned or attached to the DLIFLC & POM are authorized to subsist in all installation dining facilities:
  - a. Enlisted personnel receiving Subsistence-in-Kind (SIK) will be furnished meals without charge.
  - b. Enlisted personnel receiving Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) will pay the standard cash meal rates.
  - c. Officers receiving an allowance for subsistence shall pay the standard cash meal rate.
5. Spouses, dependents, and visiting relatives of military personnel may subsist in both dining facilities at the standard cash meal rates, when sponsored by a military member authorized to use the facility.
6. Retirees may purchase weekend brunch, Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner at the dining facilities. Retirees may subsist at Belas Hall while staying in guest billeting at the DLIFLC & POM. Retirees shall pay the standard cash meal rates.
7. DOD Civilians, Staff and Faculty, working on post, may as a matter of convenience purchase a meal at the Belas Dining Facility, or a la carte food items at the Kiosk.

8 Contractor Employees

a. Contract dining facility cooks and attendees may eat in the dining facility during their scheduled work periods, paying standard cash meal rates.

b. Other contractor employees working on post. On an occasional basis and as a matter of convenience to the Government, contractor employees are authorized to purchase a la carte items at the Kiosks with prior approval of the Installation Commander and coordination through the Installation Food Advisor.

9. Members of Youth Groups. Requests to support members of youth groups will be handled on a case-by-case basis. Requests will be forwarded to the Installation Food Advisor for approval and dining facility designation.

10. Prospective Enlistees. Prospective enlistees may eat meals at the installation dining facilities on a cash-reimbursement basis when escorted by Army or Reserve Component Recruiters. Request will be forwarded to the Installation Food Advisor for approval and dining facility designation.

11. All other personnel having the Installation Commander's personal or written approval to eat in installation appropriated fund dining facilities shall pay the standard cash meal rates.

12. The discount meal rate applies to the spouses and dependents of enlisted personnel in pay grades E1 through E4 and some infrequent situations not addressed here.

13. Proponent: The proponent of this policy is the Directorate of Logistics (ATZP-DL-F), 242-7951, FAX 242-7273. This policy supersedes DLIFLC & POM Command Policy on Subsisting in Installation's Appropriated Fund Dining Facilities, dtd 15 Jan 97.
